

Gateway Employment Resources celebrates its 25th Anniversary as a private non-profit agency in Limerick

Gateway provides employment services and support for people with disabilities throughout Montgomery County. At its annual board of directors meeting on September 30, 2010 Gateway program participants, Amanda Koutroubas and John Cattafesta, were recognized for their hard work and dedication as employees of both Acme and Giant supermarkets.

Present board members:

Chairman, George Gunning, Continental Bank
David Giraldi, President/CEO Gateway
Treasurer, Donald Smith, Tornetta Accounting, LTD
Secretary, Renee Chesler, VP CertainTeed
Tom Inglesby, Kistler-Tiffany Benefits
Joe St Pedro, St Pedro & Associates
Melissa Sanders, Director Residence Life
Ursinus College
Stephen Porter, Esquire, Palmarella, Curry & Kelly

Joe St. Pedro along with the entire board of directors recognize Gateway program participants, Amanda Koutroubas and John Cattafesta.

Newly elected board members:

Edward Callan, Plant Manager, Exelon Nuclear
Alice Scandone, Tornetta Realty Corp.
Harry Kobus, Scargill & McClurken Insurance

Gateway Employment Resources has assisted hundreds of individuals with disabilities throughout the employment process. Services range from intake/assessments, job development, transportation training, career counseling, on-the-job training and follow-up support. Services are free to prospective employers and eligible employers may qualify for tax credits.

Gateway receives federal, state, and county funding, and hosts various fundraisers throughout the year to help support the program.

Gateway Employment Resources, Inc.

Partners with Business...Enhancing the Employability of People with Disabilities

www.gatewayemployment.org